JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY INDULGENCES
How to obtain an indulgence during the Jubilee Year of Mercy.
For members of the Diocese of Bunbury, and visitors to it, the indulgence can be gained by entering through the Holy Door at the following churches:
St Patrick’s Cathedral, Bunbury
St Joseph’s Church, Manjimup
Our Lady’s Assumption Church, Mandurah
St Joseph’s Church, Albany

The faithful are able to gain the indulgence by entering through the Holy Door at one of the Churches above and linking that with;
Receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation
Celebrating the Holy Eucharist while reflecting on God’s Mercy
Making a Profession of Faith (Creed)

More information on making the pilgrimage during this Jubilee Year of Mercy may be obtained from the front entrance notice board

A reminder that our weekly parish bulletin may be viewed through the St Patrick’s School website www.stpatskatanning.wa.edu.au

The next Eucharistic Adoration will be on Friday 10th June (even though it is not the first Friday of the month but it will be the first Friday after Fr Francis’ return from leave, at which the Holy Hour will begin at 9.00am followed by Mass. This new time format will remain for all future first Friday Eucharistic Adoration days. Everyone welcome to this prayerful meditation and recitation of the Holy Rosary/Litany/Benediction for one hour; or for whatever period of that Holy Hour
