25th October 2020 - THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

First Reading: Book of Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this: "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. "If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. "If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading: St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming. The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: *Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, ‘Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?’ Jesus said, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.’

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS:

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A: 1st November 2020

Malachi 1:14-2:2,8-10, St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10, Matthew 22:34-40

HOLY ROSARY BEFORE SUNDAY MASS

Holy Rosary will be recited every Sunday at 10.00am, 30 minutes before the start of Mass. As a Parish Family, this devotional will help us to focus on our preparation for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Bishop Holohan has advised that on Saturday 10th October Blessed Carlo Acutis (3 May 1991 – 12 October 2006) was beatified. He was an Italian Catholic schoolboy and amateur computer programmer, and best known for documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world and cataloguing them all onto a website that he created in the months before his death from leukemia. He was noted for his cheerfulness and his computer skills as well as for his deep devotion to the Eucharist, which becomes a core theme of his life. The call for him to be beatified began not long after Acutis' death. The campaign gained momentum in 2013 after he was named a Servant of God, the first stage on the path towards sainthood. A contemporary saint for today's students. More information from: <https://www.vaticannews.va/en/pope/news/2020-10/pope-francis-beatification-carlo-acutis-millennials.html>

PARISH NEWS

Today we join with St Bernard’s Parish in celebrating the 64th annual Rosary Rally. In the 1950’s George and Mary Jeffs purchased a beautiful marble statue of Mary Immaculate and mounted it on a rock on their farm at Jingalup, and they initiated the Rosary Rally, which has been held on the last Sunday of October every year since. The statue now resides at the school, since the Jeff’s farm was sold.

Next Sunday the following children will receive the Sacrament of First Holy Communion: Beth Collis, Mathilda Kerin, Adam Edwards, and Lachlan Holzknicht. Please pray for them, their families and teachers in their continued faith journey.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will commence in our Parish on Friday 6th November and will occur every first Friday of the month thereafter. Holy Mass will commence at 9.00am, followed by the recitation of the Holy Rosary, individual adoration and finishing at 3.00pm with the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction. A roster for individual adoration will be located in the Church entrance. As a Parish family please consider this opportunity to express our devotion to Jesus, in the Blessed Sacrament.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino, and in a special way Laline Ford, and David McGuire. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the “Welcome to our Parish Form” from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the ‘generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.” Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
