15th November 2020 - THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

First Reading: Book of Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31

A perfect wife – who can find her? She is far beyond the price of pearls. Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit. Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life. She is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands. She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle. She holds out her hand to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy. Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise. Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: *Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Second Reading: First Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 5:1-6 You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it. But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober. The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: ‘The kingdom of Heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. ‘The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. ‘Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. “Sir,” he said “you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made.” ‘His master said to him, “Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master’s happiness.” Next the man with the two talents came forward. “Sir,” he said “you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made.” His master said to him, “Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master’s happiness.” ‘Last came forward the man who had the one talent. “Sir,” said he “I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back.” But his master answered him, “You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.”’ The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS:

Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe: 22nd November 2020
Ezekiel 34:1-12,15-17, first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 15:20-26,28, Matthew 25:31-46

Advent Reflection Booklet and Fellowship Program

Our annual Advent Fellowship Program will commence on Wednesday, 2 December at 6.00pm in the Parish Meeting Room. A beautiful reflection booklet is available for $4.00 to use at home in private reflection, or if you would like to take part in our group fellowship, please see Emily Kennedy or Jenny Goodheart. All are welcome.

PARISH NEWS

November is the month we pray especially for our deceased relatives and friends. In remembering and giving thanks, our loved ones continue to be a source of strength, blessing and healing for us. Envelopes are available at the entrance to the church where names may be written and then placed in a specially marked box at the Altar. Donations are welcome. Fr Gerome will offer Masses during November for all those petitioned.

BISHOP GERARD’S CATHOLIC CARE CHRISTMAS APPEAL NEXT WEEKEND
“People Helping People”

Next week the annual CatholicCare Christmas Appeal will be held. This year, due to COVID-19 and the increased number of people seeking help in the community, the Appeal will once again be for the valuable services of the St Vincent de Paul Society. Appeal envelopes will be available at Mass from next week. Donations of $2.00 or more are tax deductible.

There are five Sundays this November and, as per usual arrangement, Tambellup will have the 8.30am Mass on Sunday 29th November and Kojonup will have a Communion Service. Katanning will have the normal Mass time of 10.30am.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino, and in a special way Laline Ford, and David McGuire. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the “Welcome to our Parish Form” from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the ‘generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.” Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
