PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screen14th February 2021 - SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B*First Reading: Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 'If a swelling or scab or shiny spot appears on a man's skin, a case of leprosy of the skin is to be suspected. The man must be taken to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests who are his sons. 'The man is leprous: he is unclean. The priest must declare him unclean; he is suffering from leprosy of the head. A man infected with leprosy must wear his clothing torn and his hair disordered; he must shield his upper lip and cry, "Unclean, unclean." As long as the disease lasts he must be unclean; and therefore he must live apart: he must live outside the camp.'

The word of the Lord.Responsorial Psalm: I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.*Second Reading: First letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 10:31, 11:1

Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God. Never do anything offensive to anyone – to Jews or Greeks or to the Church of God; just as I try to be helpful to everyone at all times, not anxious for my own advantage but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved. Take me for your model, as I take Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him.

The Gospel of the Lord

Does St Valentine's Day have a Christian origin? While we don't know a lot about him, historians are confident that a man called St Valentine existed. Two Valentines are listed in the Roman Martyrology for February 14 – one was a martyred Roman priest and the other Valentine was Terni, a martyred third-century bishop, or they could have been the same person. As there was so little information available about him, when the Church revised the liturgical calendar in 1969, they removed St Valentine as a feast day – although still recognise him as a saint. This, of course, doesn't mean that Catholics can't celebrate St Valentine's Day. To the contrary, stripped back from all its consumerist frills, the day lauds matrimony and the commitment a couple make to one another daily. If you choose to celebrate it this year, thank your spouse for the hard work they do, reflect on how you've grown together, and celebrate where you're at today.
