7th March 2021 - THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Exodus 20:1-17 (short version)

God spoke all these words. He said, 'I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. "You shall have no gods except me. 'You shall not utter the name of the Lord your God to misuse it, for the Lord will not leave unpunished the man who utters his name to misuse it. 'Remember the sabbath day and keep it holy. 'Honour your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that the Lord your God has given to you. 'You shall not kill. 'You shall not commit adultery. 'You shall not steal. 'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. 'You shall not covet your neighbour's house. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or his servant, man or woman, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is his.' The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Second Reading: Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1:22-25

While the Jews demand miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom, here are we preaching a crucified Christ; to the Jews an obstacle that they cannot get over, to the pagans madness, but to those who have been called, whether they are Jews or Greeks, a Christ who is the power and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel: John 2:13-25

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money-changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said. During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him. The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS:

Fourth Sunday of Lent 14th March 2021 : Book of Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23; First Letter of St Paul to the Ephesians 2:4-10; John 3:14-21

St Patrick's Parish Religious Education Program will be commencing soon. This Program is for children who do not attend a Catholic School and are working towards the preparation of the Sacraments. If you have children, or know of families that would like their children to receive the Sacraments, please see Fr Gerome or Julie Poett.

Can You Help? In preparation for the coming winter season, a new wood fired heater has been installed in the Parish house. If any parishioners are able to donate some suitable wood for this purpose please contact Fr Gerome. Any amount would be most appreciated!

Lenten Reflection and Fellowship Program: Every Wednesday during Lent at 6.00pm in the Parish House Meeting Room. All are welcome.

Stations of the Cross - walk the way of the Cross every Friday evening during Lent 6.00pm

Please take home a Project Compassion box and/or a set of donation envelopes (available at entrance to the church) and support Caritas Australia. For over half a century, generations of Australians have participated in Project Compassion, supporting vulnerable communities before, during and after natural disasters, conflicts and crises – making it one of the nation's longest running charity campaigns.

PARISH NEWS

Canonical Visitation: Bishop Holohan will be making his Canonical visitation to Katanning on Friday, 12 to Sunday, 14 March. The Bishop will meet with the Principal of St Patrick's Primary School and visit the classrooms, and will also meet with the Pastoral Parish Council and the Parish Finance Committee, to discuss how the Parish is going and our future direction. On Sunday 14 March, the Bishop will celebrate the 10.30am Mass in Katanning, and following Mass, there will be morning tea in the School hall - this is a perfect opportunity for you to meet the Bishop in person, and discuss any issues you may have. It is sort of like a "get to know you" opportunity. It would be wonderful if you could all make an effort to join us. If possible, please bring a plate to share for morning tea, thank you!

Today we welcome the students of St Patrick's Primary School to their 2021 Sacramental Commissioning Mass in preparation of their spiritual journey of faith; and to the staff to their Commissioning Mass in their task of forming and educating children through faith. At the start of this new school year we ask the Lord to bless and strengthen them all.

We welcome with love and through the Sacrament of Baptism baby Rosie Dark, daughter of Michael and Rachel, sister of Tommy; preparing to be received into the arms of Jesus.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino and Joan Clarke in Kerry Lodge, and in a special way Laline Ford, David McGuire and former parishioner Nancy Tayler recovering from serious traffic accident. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the "Welcome to our Parish Form" from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
