30th May 2021 - THE MOST HOLY TRINITY YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Deuteronomy 4:32-34,39-40

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors – all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? 'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: the Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:14-17

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ June 6th 2021: Exodus 24:3-8; Letter to the Hebrews 9:11-15; Mark 14:12-16,22-26

THE TRINITY

Today we contemplate and celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, the mystery of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

This is a deep mystery of our faith – not a mystery to be solved, but the mystery of God who is a “communion of Love” and into whose life we are invited for all eternity. Think of how often we recognise God the Holy Trinity in our prayer and worship. St Matthew ends his Gospel with these words from Jesus: “Go make disciples of all the nations and baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28.19) We begin and end prayer, blessing ourselves “in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” As we make the sign of the cross, a symbolic action with a two millennia history (from 2nd Century CE), we might become more and more attentive to the wonder of the divine life that dwells in us and in whom we are privileged to dwell.

Prayerful condolences are with Liz Guidera and her family on the loss of her sister Catherine and to Brett Green and family on the loss of his father Robert Green. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace. Amen

The next Parish morning tea will be held after Mass on Sunday 27th June. Please bring a plate to share if possible.

Message from Bishop Holohan:

Dear Parishioners, As you know, Fr Gerome has been on medical leave on the recommendation of his doctor. I have received a recommendation from those caring for him this week that his leave needs to be extended.

I am sorry for this situation but unfortunately there is not much I can do about it. I will keep the parish informed as I receive information. God bless, Bishop Gerard

PARISH NEWS

May is the month traditionally devoted to Mary the Holy Mother of God and all are invited to honour the Blessed Virgin Mary by devotion to the Holy Rosary. Holy Rosary is recited before Mass every Sunday commencing at 10.00am throughout the year.

We welcome and pray for the families, teachers and St Patrick's Year 4 children who will receive the Sacrament of First Communion today: Flynn Stade, Emma Shackley, Haley Smith-Marciniak and Violet Quartermaine. First Holy Communion completes their journey into full communion with the Church and is a high point of our faith.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Friday 4th June commencing with Mass at 9.00am followed by recitation of the Holy Rosary, individual adoration and finishing at 12.00noon with the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction. All are welcome. Mass for the first Saturday of the month will be celebrated on Saturday 5th June at 9.00am.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino and Joan Clarke in Kerry Lodge, and in a special way Laline Ford, David McGuire; and Ken Baxter recovering from surgery. Former parishioner Nancy Tayler continues her treatment following motor vehicle accident. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the “Welcome to our Parish Form” from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the ‘generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.” Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
