13th June 2021 - ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Ezekiel 17:22-24

The Lord says this: 'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time: he starts to reap because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.' Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone. The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 12th Sunday in Ordinary time June 20th 2021: Book of Job 38:1,8-11; Second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41

First Communicants Emma Shackley, Violet Quartermaine, Flynn Stade and Haley Smith-Marciniak with Fr David Nieves, Sunday 30th May 2021

During this "Year of Saint Joseph" from 8th December 2020, to 8th December 2021, Pope Francis has called the Church to become more aware of the important role of St Joseph in our Christian faith and to focus our attention on him as the patron of the universal Church. In his Apostolic Letter Patris corde ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis describes Saint Joseph as a beloved, tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father; a father who is creatively courageous, a working father, a father in the shadows. Our own Australian Saint, Mary of the Cross MacKillop, together with Fr Julian Tenison Woods, founded the Order of the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart and chose St Joseph to be patron of the Congregation. We too, can take great heart in St Joseph's example and emulate his qualities of tenderness, faith, trust and courage described for us in the Gospels. Mary MacKillop invites us "to ask Joseph to obtain for us a generous devoted love for Jesus, a love that will make us like himself.

PARISH NEWS

We warmly welcome today Deacon Ian Lewis, Bunbury Parish Manager, who will celebrate the Liturgy of the Word with Communion this weekend and next weekend. His wife Ronelle will accompany him this weekend. We sincerely thank Deacon Ian for coming to Katanning to minister to us. On the weekend of 26th and 27th June Fr Ian Johnson will come to celebrate Masses in Katanning and Kojonup.

Fr Gerome remains on leave.

The readings for today, the 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time for Year B are filled with images of growth. The first reading tells of planting a shoot on a mountain, which then becomes a shelter for the birds. And in the gospel Jesus tells the parable of the seed that grows and the parable of the mustard seed. Spiritual growth and growth of the Kingdom of God are themes for these readings.

The next Parish morning tea will be held after Mass on Sunday 27th June. Please bring a plate to share if possible.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino and Joan Clarke in Kerry Lodge, and in a special way Laline Ford, David McGuire; and Ken Baxter recovering from surgery. Former parishioner Nancy Tayler continues her treatment following motor vehicle accident. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the "Welcome to our Parish Form" from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme."' Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
