20th June 2021 - TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Job 38:1, 8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 13th Sunday in Ordinary time June 27th 2021: Book of Wisdom 1:13-15: 2:23-24; Second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15; Mark 5:21-43

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavour to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

PARISH NEWS

We warmly welcome the return today of Deacon Ian Lewis, Bunbury Parish Manager, who will celebrate the Liturgy of the Word with Communion this weekend. We sincerely thank Deacon Ian for coming to Katanning to minister to us. Next weekend of 26th and 27th June Fr Ian Johnson will come to celebrate Masses in Katanning and Kojonup. Fr Gerome remains on leave.

Children's Liturgy returns! Thank you to Julie who has volunteered to conduct Children's Liturgy (formerly Pocket Angels) every fourth Sunday of the month beginning next Sunday 27th June. Attending Mass together is a part of being a Catholic Family while Children's Liturgy of the Word allows children to enter the celebration more fully by catering to their needs.

Parish Morning Tea - please join us for a cuppa next Sunday 27th June after the 9.30am Mass; come and meet new parishioners, or catch up with friends. It would be greatly appreciated if you could bring a plate of something to share.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Nancy Laurino and Joan Clarke in Kerry Lodge, and in a special way Laline Ford, David McGuire; and Ken Baxter recovering from surgery. Former parishioner Nancy Tayler continues her treatment following motor vehicle accident. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the "Welcome to our Parish Form" from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme."' Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
