17th October 2021 - TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over, he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.' When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

STATEMENT FROM BISHOP GERARD I want to thank each of you for praying for the first session of the Plenary Council of Australia. The Holy Spirit was very much among us. The first session was about the more than the 270 delegates' proposals, based upon their reading of the results of the Australia wide, for the issues to be the focus of the second session. This is scheduled to be a physical gathering of delegates in Sydney in July next year. The many proposals made during the last session will be unified into recommendations for discernment and discussion in the second session by a drafting committee. Delegates will be consulted about drafts in between sessions as draft recommendations are developed. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide all involved in the continuing process of the Plenary Council clear. God bless.
