PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screen26th June 2022 - THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C*First Reading: First book of Kings

The Lord said to Elijah, 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.' Leaving there, Elijah came on Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant. The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: You are my inheritance, O Lord.Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians 5:1,13-18

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community. Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village. As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' Another to whom he said, 'Follow me', replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say goodbye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.' The Gospel of the Lord

PARISH NEWS

Please continue to keep in your prayers our Reconciliation candidates Arizxa Libres and Georgia Holzkecht and their families and teachers.

First Friday Mass Friday 1st July 9.00am followed by Eucharistic Adoration; First Saturday Mass 2nd July 9.00am.

There will be no Mass next Wednesday 29th June as Fr Marlon will be in Bunbury attending Annual Priest's Conference (from 28th to 30th June).

Two annual Diocesan Appeals are coming up: the first on 10th July will be for Apostleship of the Sea and the second on 24th July for Peter's Pence. Any donation gratefully accepted.

In today's Gospel, Jesus' invitation to the would-be disciples is a call to transcend the inclinations of the self, which is bound to a location and place, isolated by race, ethnicity, nationality, province, and biases and to enter the spiritual, and live under the guidance of the Spirit.

Such a life becomes universal, diverse, neighbourly, and humane.

Today, the same invitation is offered: do not allow our world's violence and hatred to destroy us but be disciples of love and unity.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme."' Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
