PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screen10th July 2022 - FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C*First Reading: Book of Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul. 'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.' The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.Second Reading: St Paul to the Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers – all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, ‘Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ He said to him, ‘What is written in the Law? What do you read there?’ He replied, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.’ ‘You have answered right,’ said Jesus ‘do this and life is yours.’ But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’ Jesus replied, ‘A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. “Look after him,” he said “and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have.” Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands’ hands?’ ‘The one who took pity on him’ he replied. Jesus said to him, ‘Go, and do the same yourself.’ The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time: July 10th 2022: Genesis 18:1-10; St Paul to the Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42

The next Parish Morning Tea will be held after Mass on Sunday 24th July—all welcome and please bring a plate to share if possible.

We remember today Fr John Bonato SM, (dec) born in Katanning (and cousin to Antoinette) and ordained at St Patrick’s 57 years ago on 10th July 1965; the only priest to have ever been ordained here. Fr Bonato passed away in Suva on April 18, 2012.

PARISH NEWS

Please continue to keep in your prayers our Reconciliation candidates Arizxa Libres and Georgia Holzknecht and their families and teachers.

Today we welcome through the Sacrament of Baptism Amelia Jane and Kaylee Jade Bradley daughters of Peter and Michelle Bradley and granddaughters of Bernadette and Paul Bradley. “God, surround these children with your light and love. Lead them in your love and mercies in righteous living on the paths you choose. Keep them safe all the days of their lives. Fill their lives with all manner of good things. Amen.”

Fr Marlon will be absent from the Parish from Monday 11th July to Wednesday 13th July. There will be no Mass on Wednesday 13th July.

STELLA MARIS

Today is Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them, we would not have most of the items we rely on for daily living. Even during a pandemic, seafarers continue to bring into our ports products that sustain our population and economy. The Appeal today is for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. To assist this ministry, there will be a collection today or please send your donations to <https://stellamarisaustralia.org/sea-sunday-appeal/>

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Derrick Nalli, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the ‘generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.” Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
