30th October 2022 - THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

First Reading: Book of Wisdom 11:22-12:2

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground. Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent. Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it. And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you? You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all. Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord. The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading: Second Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! God loved the world so much, he gave his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: "Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today." And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. "He has gone to stay at a sinner's house" they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, "Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost." The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: November 6th, 2022:

Book of Maccabees 7:1-2,9-14; Second Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 2:16-3:5; Luke 20:27-38

The Gospel today illustrates the point and purpose of the spiritual life: that God would dwell within us, and from within, transform us. This is the point of listening to God in the Liturgy of the Word at Holy Mass: to come down from our self-regard and allow Jesus to enter our home—to enter our soul—in order to transform us from within through the grace of the Eucharist in Holy Communion.

Please note change to Fifth Sunday Mass arrangements; Tambellup remains at 8.30am Sunday Mass, Katanning 10.30am Mass and Kojonup will revert to Sunday 8.30am Communion Service. There will no longer be 6.00pm Vigil Mass in Kojonup on the fifth Sunday.

2023 Columban Calendars on sale now! Limited stock of these beautiful calendars so be quick to secure your copy. Purchase price $10.00 each.

PARISH NEWS

October is the month traditionally devoted to the Holy Mother of God, as the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7th. All are invited to honour the Blessed Virgin Mary by devotion to the Holy Rosary.

All Saints Day and Souls Day Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday 2nd November at 11.00am with the St Patrick's School staff and students. Following Mass we will gather at the Katanning Cemetery for blessing of the graves.

Thank you to all parishioners who supported the annual St Bernard's Rosary Rally last Sunday, and those unable to attend but with us in spirit. It was a beautiful sharing of Holy Mass and Rosary together with happy fellowship (and great food!). A special thank you to the St Bernard's Parish Community, to Fr Marlon for leading us, and to our marvellous choir and musicians John Paul and Sam leading the music liturgy!

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Julian Letter, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
