20th November 2022 - OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE YEAR C

First Reading: Second Book of Samuel 5:1-3

All the tribes of Israel then came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel.'" So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel. The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Second Reading: St Paul to the Colossians 1:12-20

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light. Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers – all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 23:35-43

The people stayed there before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.' One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied 'today you will be with me in paradise.' The Gospel of the Lord

FR TONY CHIERA

As you all know, the responsibilities of the role of Vicar General in the Bunbury Diocese have been reviewed and the result is increased responsibilities for the position. Priests have been nominating peers who might be considered for the position.

Fr Tony Chiera, who has served in the position for 22 years, has decided to decline nomination for the new position at this time. Instead, he wishes to take up my offer, made some time ago, of a sabbatical year in 2023. He wishes to use the year for rest and renewal as well as for research and writing. Fr Tony has served faithfully and his ministries have been appreciated across the whole Diocese, including his ministry as Vicar General. He has been self-giving and always seeking to help whenever and whenever asked. Personally, I will never forget his enormous help as Vicar General to me when I was called, a stranger to the Diocese, to minister as Bishop. He has been well known for his dedication to adult faith education and I know that the priests have valued deeply his ministry to them as a brother. Fr Tony has been experienced by young and old as a man of love and compassion. He has not ruled out being willing to serve as Vicar General again in the future. Let us pray that the coming year will be a time for real refreshment and renewal so that he returns to in 2024 full of energy and refreshed. God bless, Bishop Gerard.

PARISH NEWS

November is the month we pray especially for our deceased relatives and friends. In remembering and giving thanks, our loved ones continue to be a source of strength, blessing and healing for us. Envelopes are available at the entrance to the church where names may be written and then placed in a specially marked box at the Altar. Your offering may be placed in the envelope. Fr Marlon will offer Masses during November for all those petitioned.

Today we welcome, through the Sacrament of Baptism, Oaklee Edward Collard, Finley Johannes Human and Hudson Eric Human and their families. May our Lord Jesus Christ look lovingly on these children who are to be baptized, on their parents and godparents, and on all who are gathered here. Amen

Bishop Gerard's CatholicCare Christmas Appeal - THIS WEEKEND
"People Helping People"

This year's Appeal will be directed to Stella Maris (formerly Apostleship of the Seas) to provide practical help and support to seafarers visiting ports within our Diocese. The CatholicCare Appeal is the only appeal made each year for organisations which provide services within our own Diocese. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible. The Appeal envelopes are provided in the pews. Please take home and read Bishop's letter and use the enclosed return envelope to make your donation. Envelopes containing cash should be placed in the Offertory basket (please do not post cash donations). Cheque and credit card donations can either be placed in the offertory basket or posted directly to the Diocese. Thank you for your support.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Julian Letter, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
