PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screenSUNDAY 28th MAY 2023 - PENTECOST SUNDAY YEAR A*First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.' The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading: Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 12:3-7,12-13

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink. The word of the Lord

SEQUENCE:

Holy Spirit, Lord of Light, From the clear celestial height Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor, Come with treasures which endure

Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul's delightful guest, Dost refreshing peace bestow

Thou in toil art comfort sweet; Pleasant coolness in the heat;

Solace in the midst of woe. Light immortal, light divine,

Visit thou these hearts of thine, And our inmost being fill:

If thou take thy grace away, Nothing pure in man will stay;

All his good is turned to ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew;

On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill;

Guide the steps that go astray. Thou, on us who evermore Thee confess and thee adore,

With thy sevenfold gifts descend: Give us comfort when we die; Give us life with thee on high

Give us joys that never end.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 20:19-23

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you. After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: The Most Holy Trinity Year A 28th May 2023: Book of Exodus 34:4-6,8-9; Second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18.

May is the month traditionally devoted to the Holy Mother of God and all are invited to honour the Blessed Virgin Mary by devotion to the Holy Rosary. Some ways to honour Mary in your home is to create an altar for Mary, make a Mary garden and offer the Rosary.

PARISH NEWS

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means "50th day."

Fifty days after Easter Sunday, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their Earthly ministry to make disciples of all nations. The symbols of Pentecost are the flame, wind, and the dove, which represents the Holy Spirit. The colour of Pentecost is red and the priest wears red vestments on this day.

Morning tea after Mass next Sunday to wish Fr Marlon a Happy Birthday and safe journey home to visit his family. Please bring a plate to share if possible.

NOTICE TO PARISHIONERS:

Fr Marlon will be taking extended leave to visit his family in the Philippines. A well-deserved break after four years of not being able to do so.

Fr Marlon will leave Katanning on Wednesday 8th June and return 8 weeks later on 11th August.

Due to a shortage of priests being able to act as locum in our Diocese, there will not be any weekday Masses in Katanning, or Vigil Masses in Tambellup and Broomehill during this time. Sunday Masses will be offered in Kojonup and Katanning. We are very fortunate that Sunday Masses will continue. The following priests will be welcomed to Katanning:

11th June and 18th June: Msgr John Finleyson

25th June: Fr Pat Rooney

2nd July to 30th July: Fr Nathan Barrie (newly ordained priest in the Diocese of Bunbury)

6th August: Confirmation with Acting Vicar General Fr Ian Johnson

Please make these priests welcome and if anyone can assist with Saturday evening meals please contact Julie Poett, Marie Hanna or Diana Cavoli.

Sunday 4th June will be Fr Marlon's last Mass and as his birthday follows on Monday 5th June, a morning tea will be held after Mass to celebrate and wish him safe journeys. Please bring a plate to share if possible.

With thanks, St Patrick's Pastoral Parish Council
