PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screen*SUNDAY 18th JUNE 2023 - 11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A*First Reading: Book of Exodus 19:2-6

From Rephidim the sons of Israel set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp. Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagle's wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation." The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: We are his people: the sheep of his flock.*Second Reading: Second Letter of St Paul to the Romans 5:6-11

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation. The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The kingdom of God is near; repent, and believe the Good News! Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 9:36-10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.' He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: 'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A 25th June 2023: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Letter of St Paul to the Romans 5:12-15; Matthew 10:26-33

May all affected by the New South Wales bus accident receive the help which they need: eternal rest for the dead, healing for the injured, comfort for the grieving, courage for the families, support for the first responders, prevenience for doctors and nurses, unity in their communities.

St Patrick's Primary School will again be celebrating the founding sisters of our school on Tuesday 20th June, Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions, with "Bushies School". Bushies school refers to the school that the sisters would run throughout the August school holidays, to educate the children who lived on farms and were not able to attend a Catholic school to prepare them for the Sacraments. They provided full care to these students. Some of our older parishioners will remember attending Bushies School.

This year they will be celebrating Bushies Day on Tuesday 20th June.

Message from Bishop Holohan: the Diocesan Synod has recommended a review and renewal of celebrations of the Mass in the Bunbury Diocese. A pastoral letter has been issued "How can we make the Mass Relevant?". Copies are available at the entrance to the Church.

PARISH NEWS

Thank you most sincerely to Monsignor John Finleyson who has ministered to us over the past week. We are very grateful and blessed to have had him here in our community. Next week we welcome Fr Pat Rooney.

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: (Wendy Norrish), Laline Ford and David McGuire; Also our parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Eileen Smith, Clara Illiano, Ted Schaefer, Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the "Welcome to our Parish Form" from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
