SUNDAY 29th OCTOBER 2023 - 30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you have lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. "If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. 'If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity." The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading: first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew: 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, "Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?" Jesus said, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the prophets also." The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A 5th November 2023:
Malachi 1:14-2:2,8-10; First Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 2:7-9,13; Matthew 23:1-12

Next weekend Sr Kathy Kettle, a Sister of Mercy, will visit our Parishes representing Aid to the Church In Need Australia. Sr Kathy will conduct a brief 4 minute presentation to raise awareness about persecuted Christians in the world. There will be brochures in the pews and some religious items for sale .

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, and is a good time to commit to praying the Rosary. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to your life and is the best method of honouring Mary. And for those of you who already in this beautiful habit, it is the perfect month for you to share this devotion with others.

Committee Established for Welcoming our New Bishop

In preparation for the appointment of a new Bishop of Bunbury, Apostolic Administrator, Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SBD has approved the establishment of the committee responsible for the Ordination of our new Bishop if he is a priest, or if he is a Bishop already, an Installation Ceremony. The name of the Committee is the Episcopal Ordination or Installation Steering Committee (EOISC). The (Committee) Terms of Reference include all events related to the new Bishop taking full responsibility for the Diocese. Committee members have expertise drawn from the education, diocesan and parish sectors in planning, liturgy, event management, budgeting and risk management. All matters regarding the events surrounding the new Bishop taking responsibility for the Bunbury Diocese will be the responsibility of the Committee working with the Bishop-elect once he has been appointed. More information about the Committee will be released when it becomes available. In the meantime, enquiries can be directed to eoisc@bunburycatholic.org.au .

PARISH NEWS

Thank you to everyone who supported the Rosary Rally in Kojonup last weekend—to Fr Marlon for leading us and to the choir who each year provide beautiful music for the day.

Last Sunday was designated as World Mission Sunday but because of the Rosary Rally it has been deferred to today. This year's appeal is supporting the Maria Auxiliadora Clinic, run by the Salesian Sisters in Timor Leste. The appeal assists Sr Carolina in providing her community with access to adequate care and healthcare education. Please keep our missionaries in your prayers. Donation envelopes are included with this bulletin.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: (Wendy Norrish), Laline Ford and David McGuire; Also our parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Eileen Smith, Clara Illiano, Ted Schaefer, Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

NEW PARISHIONERS: welcome to our Parish! We pray you will find peace and comfort in our Parish and with our God. Please join us in fellowship and community events. Please complete the "Welcome to our Parish Form" from the front entrance of the Church and return it to the Parish Office. Thank you and God bless.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
