SUNDAY 9th JUNE 2024 - TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Genesis 3:9-15

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. "Where are you?" he asked. "I heard the sound of you in the garden" he replied "I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid." "Who told you that you were naked?" he asked. "Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?" The man replied, "It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it." Then the Lord God asked the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman replied, "The serpent tempted me and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this,

"Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring.

It will crush your head and you will strike its heel." The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption

Second Reading: Second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 4:13-5:1

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture—I believed, and therefore I spoke—we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God. That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weight little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal. For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made with human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind. The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, “beelzebul is in him,” and “It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.” So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either—it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man’s house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house. “I tell you solemnly, all men’s sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.” This was because they were saying, “An unclean spirit is in him.” His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, “Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.” He replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.” The Gospel of the Lord

Next Week’s Readings: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B 16th June 2024: Ezekiel 17:22-24; Second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10; Mark 4:26-34

PARISH NEWS

Please keep in your prayers the candidates for the Sacrament of First Communion later this month: Estera Rudd, Lesley Flowers, Matthew James Hunt, Meg Wilkie, Liam Clarke, Ceinna Obillo, so please pray for and support these children and their families.

Today we welcome back with thanks Fr Victor from Bunbury who has come to offer Mass for us. Please make him very welcome! Next week Fr Marlon will return from his leave.

Every blessing to Fr Marlon for his birthday on 5th June!

In today’s Gospel, Mark places a story within a story. In this instance, the story within is the challenge from the scribes and of Jesus’ powerful counter-challenge. The outer frame consists of the efforts of Jesus’ biological family to save their honour by saving him from a crazy lifestyle and by his redefining of his “family” as those “who do the will of God”. This complex story invites us to refrain from labelling those who threaten our status or authority. They may just happen to be agents of God’s transforming grace for us and for our world. Sr Veronica Lawson RSM

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Pat Richardson, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Also our Parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Clara Illiano and Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.”

Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
