PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screenSUNDAY 16th JUNE 2024 - ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B*First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

The Lord says this:

'From the top of the cedar,
from the highest branch I will take a shoot
and plant it myself on a very high mountain.
I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel.
It will sprout branches and bear fruit,
and become a noble cedar.

Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.

And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green.
I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The word of the LordResponsorial Psalm: Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

Second Reading: Second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad. The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time: he starts to reap because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.' Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone. The Gospel of the Lord

Next Week's Readings: Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B 23rd June 2024: Book of Job 38:1,8-11; Second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41

The Diocesan Consultation Phase for the Synod of Bishops 2021 – 2024 has now concluded.

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Bunbury Diocesan Summary (Diocesan Summary) is now available via the Diocesan website and can be accessed here:

<https://bunburycatholic.org.au/diocesan-synod-report/>

The Diocesan Summary is a summary of reports received from consultations conducted during the diocesan consultation phase of the Synod earlier this year. The Office for Evangelisation conducted several targeted consultations at specific groups such as clergy, parish pastoral council members and leaders throughout the Diocese of Bunbury. Parishes and groups were also able to conduct consultations and submit reports to the Office.

PARISH NEWS

Please keep in your prayers the candidates for the Sacrament of First Communion next week: Estera Rudd, Lesley Flowers, Matthew James Hunt, Meg Wilkie, Liam Clarke, Ceinna Obillo, so please pray for and support these children and their families.

Welcome back to Fr Marlon! Grateful thanks are with the relieving priests who ministered to us in his absence.

Prayerful condolences are with the family of Mrs Patricia (Pat) Richardson who passed into eternal life last Saturday evening. Pat was a much loved parishioner of St Patrick's and formerly of Our Lady of Fatima parish Broomehill. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace, Amen.

In an era of urbanization, of supermarket chains and online shopping even for groceries, we can easily lose sight of the source of food and the miracle of food production. The little parables today might serve as a reminder of the goodness of the Earth and of the God who sustains our planetary home. It might inspire us to contemplate the myriad ways in which the Earth speaks to us of God and God's empire or kin-dom. Sr Veronica Lawson RSM

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Laline Ford and David McGuire; Also our Parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Clara Illiano and Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
