PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screenSUNDAY 20th OCTOBER 2024 - TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B*First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,

he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over,

he shall see the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,

taking their faults on himself.

The word of the LordResponsorial Psalm: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.*Second Reading: Letter to the Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help. The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. ‘Master,’ they said to him ‘we want you to do us a favour.’ He said to them, ‘What is it you want me to do for you?’ They said to him, ‘Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.’ ‘You do not know what you are asking’ Jesus said to them. ‘Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?’ They replied, ‘We can.’ Jesus said to them, ‘The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.’

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, ‘You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.’

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, and is a good time to commit to praying the Rosary. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to your life and is the best method of honouring Mary. And for those of you who already in this beautiful habit, it is the perfect month for you to share this devotion with others. Some ways to honour Mary in your home is to create an altar for Mary, make a Mary garden, offer the Rosary and special prayers, and play music for Mary.

During World Mission Month, we are called to “Invite others to the banquet”, and we invite you to share the warmth of God’s love with our brothers and sisters who need it most. In Mongolia, vulnerable people requiring social services often face stigma for using them. Those in need are often impacted by domestic violence or homelessness. Unfortunately, support services are limited in number and the demand for them is growing. Today, on World Mission Sunday, we invite you to partner with Catholic Mission to support the Church in Mongolia on their journey to provide more support for vulnerable people in need. Envelopes are available in the pews for donations.

Bishop Gerard’s Surgery: Bishop Gerard wishes to thank all who prayed for the success of his bladder cancer surgery on 9th October. The surgery was successful and the pathology shows that he has no need for any further treatment.

We are well into the season of Spring. It is lovely to see the early blossoms appearing on the trees that surround us and the new burst of life after a dormant winter. They go into their shell over winter, having shed their leaves, I presume as a strategy of energy conservation in the cooler months. The natural world that surrounds us is full of wonder, if we allow ourselves the time to observe its machinations. I wonder if we take a similar approach to the seasons of the Church. Do we ever hibernate, only to reappear full of life and energy? Or do we meander through the year, paying scant regard to the changes all around us? Do we just ‘go with the flow’ or do we take a more proactive approach to our faith? When you have a busy life of family and/or work, it can be easy to get lost in the fog of busyness. M. Kelly Queens Park Parish

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Laline Ford; Also our Parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Clara Illiano and Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the ‘generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the “Planned Giving Programme.” Like all families, everyone’s pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick’s Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
