SUNDAY 3rd November 2024 - THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Book of Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses said to the people: 'If you fear the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you, you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson. Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord the God of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow. 'Listen, Israel: the Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart.' The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: I love you Lord, my strength.

Second Reading: Letter to the Hebrews 7:23-28

There used to be a great number of priests under the former covenant, because death put an end to each one of them; but this one, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain, since he is living for ever to intercede for all who come to God through him. To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised up above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and then for those of the people, because he has done this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever. The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more. The Gospel of the Lord

Next Week's Readings: Thirty second Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B 10th November

2024: Book of Kings 17:10-16; Letter to the Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44

Have you considered inviting Fr Marlon to your home for a cuppa and chat? Priests often lead solitary and somewhat lonely lives, an invitation would be most welcome., and an opportunity to get to know each other better. Perhaps you would like your house blessed? Do you know an ill or lonely parishioner who could benefit from a visit, with their permission? Contact Fr Marlon!

CatholicCare "People Helping People"

Archbishop Timothy's Christmas Appeal for CatholicCare.

Next weekend the Annual Christmas Appeal for CatholicCare will be Held. Appeal envelopes will be available at Mass from next week. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

Last Saturday 26th October we welcomed through the Sacrament of Baptism Jai Marino, infant son of Jordan and Devan Marino and grandson of Joe and Sharon Marino. Surround Jai with your love, fill him with the Holy Spirit and receive him into the family of your church, that he may walk with us in the way of Christ, and grow in the knowledge of your love. Amen.

November is the month we pray especially for our deceased relatives and friends. In remembering and giving thanks, our loved ones continue to be a source of strength, blessing and healing for us.

Envelopes are available at the entrance to the church or in the pews, where names may be written and then placed in a specially marked box at the Altar. Your offering may be placed in the envelope. Fr Marlon will offer Masses during November for all those petitioned.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Laline Ford; Also our Parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Clara Illiano and Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
